

PSG COLLEGE OF PHARMACY

NSS UNIT

NSS REGULAR ACTIVITY REPORT

2014 - 2015

PSG COLLEGE OF PHARMACY

PEELAMEDU, COIMBATORE

TAMILNADU

NSS REGULAR ACTIVITY REPORT – 2014-15

15th August 2015:

Independence Day was celebrated in the campus by hoisting the national flag.

25th September 2015:

World Pharmacist Day was celebrated in the College. Role of community health care, prevention of self medication, usage of medicines were highlighted to the public by displaying posters by Pharm D students in the hospital premises.

Fig 1. Interaction of the students with the public on the World Pharmacist Day.

Maintenance of Medicinal Garden:

NSS volunteers regularly visits medicinal garden and clean it as an when required.

29th October 2014:

World Strokes Day was observed on 29th of October 2014. An awareness rally was organized. NSS volunteers of PSG College of Pharmacy brought an awareness to the public about the prevention of stoke by distributing pamphlets, shouting the slogans and displaying the banners & placards during the rally.

Fig 2. Awareness rally organized during the Strokes Day.

3rd November 2014:

An amount of Rs.7,515/- was contributed by the NSS Volunteers towards the flood victims of Jammu & Kashmir.

7th November 2014:

Science day was celebrated on 7th of November 2014. Elocution competition was held on 4th November 2014 on the topic 'Nobel Laureates in Science' and Drawing competition was held on 5th November 2014 on the topic 'Green revolution'. Prizes and certificates were given for the I, II and III place for both the competitions.

Fig. 3. Winner receiving the prize from Dr.Radhakrishnan, Director, PSG Institute of Advance Sciences.

26th January 2015

Republic day celebrations were held in the college campus.

27th February 2015

A short film competition was organized by the NSS unit of PSG College of Pharmacy on the theme 'Human Values' to stress the importance of human values for the students of PSG College of Pharmacy. The entry was restricted to 10 teams. After preliminary screening 5 short films were selected and screened on 27th February 2015. I, II and III prizes were given for the winners.

9th - 15th March 2015 National Integration camp at Kanakagiri Siddha Kshethra, Malayur in Karnataka

National Integration camp was Organized by Govt. of Karnataka National Service Scheme Cell Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Govt. of India, Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences, Karnataka and Government Ayurveda Medical College, Mysuru from 9th to 15th March 2015 at Kanakagiri Siddha Kshethra, Malayur in Karnataka. Ten NSS Volunteers of PSG College of Pharmacy have attended the camp and benefited. The main slogan of the camp was 'healthy mind and body for a better nation'.

The National Integration Camp once again reminded the NSS Volunteers about keeping their body, soul and spirit in a healthy state. Yoga, awareness rally, medical camp, field visit to agricultural farms, interaction with the farmers, educating the villagers about cleanliness, talks on environment, cultural programmes, donation to the children at ashram all made the volunteers to think about their social responsibility to the nation. As per the motto of NSS, 'No me but you' the volunteers understood the greater responsibility of the younger generation and also their personality was developed by various activities of the camp.

Fig 4. NSS Volunteers involving themselves in various activities at National Integration Camp.

Blood Donars Club:

30 NSS Volunteers have donated blood to PSG Hospitals blood bank during the period of April 2014 – March 2015.